

Why You Need Owner's Title Insurance

Whether it's picking out paint chips, planting a new garden or unpacking all the boxes, making your house a home is a priority.

When that dream is finally realized, why wouldn't you take every precaution to protect it?

Our business is protecting ownership of your property: often the largest financial transaction you'll make in your life. For a relatively low, one-time premium, you're protected against legal problems over property rights that could cost tens of thousands — even the loss of your home. Dollar for dollar, an owner's title insurance policy is one of the most cost-efficient forms of insurance for homeowners. Best of all, your one-time premium protects you for as long as you or your heirs own your property.

Home. The place where you live is also one of your most valuable possessions. But did you know that ownership of your home could be threatened — or taken away from you — even if you've paid for the property and received a deed?

If ownership of your property ever comes into question, an owner's title insurance policy protects you from expensive legal problems that could result in the loss of your home.

How Title Insurance Works

As property changes hands, mistakes and irregularities — often made long before you expressed interest in the property — can place your ownership in dispute. The seller may have...

...Avoided disclosure of using the property as collateral for an unpaid loan.

...Fraudulently claimed to be the sole owner.

...Failed to pay real estate taxes.

Even a simple mistake in the recording of legal documents, improper execution of legal instruments or the reappearance of undisclosed or missing heirs can result in the loss of your home.

If our title search reveals recorded defects, liens or encumbrances upon the title, such as unpaid taxes, unsatisfied mortgages, easements, restrictions or other impediments, these are reported to you prior to your purchase of the property. What's more, we offer solutions to resolving these impediments so you own your property free and clear at closing.
